

Unions = Building Power & Wealth for Workers!

The Center for American Progress recently published an updated report on the financial impact of union membership. Their conclusion?

"No matter the measure, union membership offers substantially more wealth for working-class families."

BUILDING MORE WEALTH FOR WORKING FAMILIES

Union households hold nearly four times as much median wealth as the typical non-union household.

TACKLING RACIAL WEALTH GAP

Black union families hold more than four times as much wealth as their non-union counterparts, Hispanic families more than five times as much wealth, and families of other or multiple races or ethnicities have in excess of seven times as much wealth.

Black union households:
4.3x wealth of non-union

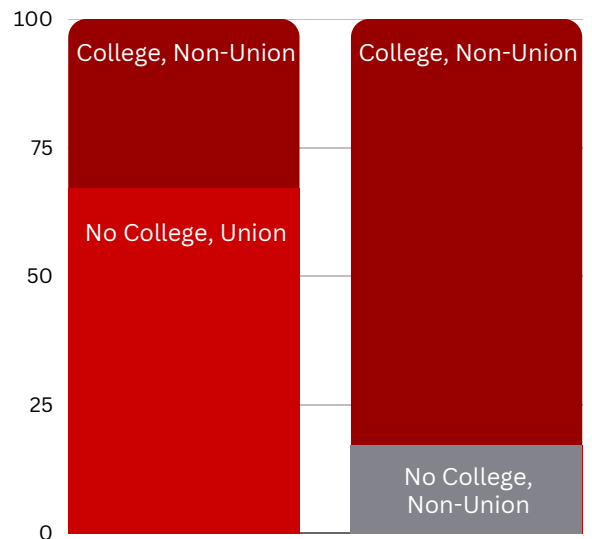

Hispanic union households:
5.4x wealth of non-union

Multiple race union households:
7.2x wealth of non-union

NARROWING THE COLLEGE WEALTH GAP

The median wealth of working-class union households is 67% that of college-educated nonunion households. The median wealth of working-class nonunion households is just 17% that of college-educated nonunion households.
